I hope you all had a wonderful holiday break with your families. I can speak for the staff in saying that we had a great break, but are ready to get back into the swing of things with your children!

The cold weather has reminded us right away that we are definitely into winter. All of our classes have been exploring the winter themes – ice, snow and snowmen – with more on the way! The Bumblebees painted with ice cubes, the Ladybugs are matching mittens and the Butterflies are making snowmen! Next week, the Butterflies are going to have a stock show celebration complete with homemade horses and a “bean supper” by the campfire and in cooking, we are going to rustle up some homemade cornbread!

I hope the new year brings you many wonderful blessings! As always if you have any questions, comments or suggestions, or need some prayers, please don't hesitate to stop by, call me or email me.

Dates to Remember

January 17th – NO SCHOOL, MLK Day

January 19th – Open house for new families interested in attending Holy Trinity Preschool for the 2011-2012 school year. $20 off registration fee if a new family enrolls that evening!

Practicing our songs for Jesus' Birthday!

Updates and Reminders

- January tuition is due. I know the holidays throw some of us off, but we would appreciate your prompt payment as soon as possible. February tuition is due February 1.
- The speech and hearing testing that was originally scheduled for October 13 and 14 has been rescheduled for February 17th.
- Please send your child with winter clothing (hats, mittens, gloves or at least boots) even on sunny, cold days. We want to go outside, but our playground doesn't melt as quickly as the sidewalks, and we don't want to get our feet too wet!

Welcome Logan and Lauren to the Ladybug Class! We are glad you are here with us!!

Early Registration has begun!
Our current families have first choice for classes next year.
Complete a registration form today!
